1. Fromjan Svensson: The Swedish village in Ukraine

Fromjan Svensson o

Details Shalom,

Two families escaped last week from Gammalsvenskby - the Swedish village in Ukraine - and they are now safely in Sweden. A few more families apparently want to escape - quite a risky business during the present conditions. May God be with them.

The hunt for Gammalsvenskby: A lost Swedish village in Ukraine

The hunt for Gammalsvenskby: A lost Swedish village in Ukraine https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zBrnpAJH5d8

Most of the inhabitants of Gammalsvenskby, around 800 persons were evacuated to Sweden in 1929, but some returned to Ukraine in 1931.

The village will celebrate 240 years on the 1st of May this year. It was founded in 1782, by Swedes who came from Dag22an island now belonging to Estonia.

I suspect that Dagzzans "fish island", since the shape of the island is similar to a fish and dag means fish in Hebrew.

A neighbouring island is named el, and its shape is similar to a tamarisk - Eshel in Hebrew.

Regards,

jan

2. Two Rivers in Northern Norway named "River of Jacob" brought to our attention by Mark Williams.

(1) Jakobselva (Sr-Varanger)

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jakobselva (S%C3%B8r-Varanger)

The Jakobselva or Grense Jakobselv (English: Jacob's River, Russian: , Vor'yema, Finnish: Vuoremijoki, Northern Sami: Vuorjo is a river that runs along the Russia-Norway border. The river runs along the border of Sr-Varanger Municipality in Troms og Finnmark county, Norway, and Pechengsky District in Murmansk Oblast, Russia. The river discharges into the Varangerfjorden, a bay off the Barents Sea.[1]

The catchment area covers 236.44 km, the mean discharge at the mouth 4.13 m / s. Between 1920 and 1944, the river formed the border between Norway and Finland. The river is considered an excellent salmon river . However, along the section of the river that now forms the border between Norway and Russia, fishing is only permitted under very specific circumstances and only for a specific group of people.

(2) Vestre Jakobselv https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Vestre Jakobselv

Vestre Jakobselv (Northern Sami: nnejohka; Kven: Annijoki) is a village in Vads Municipality in Troms og Finnmark county, in extreme northeastern Norway. The village lies along the European route E75 highway about 17 kilometres (11 mi) west of the town of Vads and the same distance east of the village of Nesseby in neighboring Nesseby Municipality.[3]

View of the Jakobselva river, north of the village

The village is located on the southern shore of the large mainland Varanger Peninsula at the mouth of the river Jakobselva, which is where the village gets its name. The river empties into the Varangerfjorden at this village. Upstream from the village, the Jakobselva river is known to be a superb sport fishing river, with a lot of big salmon. The river winds its way down from the mountains through a lush birch wood valley all the way to the fjord.[3]

The 0.75-square-kilometre (190-acre) village has a population (2017) of 537 which gives the village a population density of 716 inhabitants per square kilometre (1,850/sq mi).

Vestre Jakobselv is home to the Third Division soccer club, IL Polarstjernen. The Vestre Jakobselv Church is located in the village, serving the western part of the municipality.

3. New Video Clip. Who Qualifies to be from the Ten Tribes? https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pCdxOiGKn10

All the text NOW in subtitles.

Duration: 18.08 minutes.

The Ten Tribes separated from Judah (ancestors of the present-day Jews) and established their own Kingdom. The Assyrians conquered and exiled them. They migrated to different areas and lost awareness of their Hebrew origins. Nevertheless they remained together albeit in different groups. We trace them to part of the Western peoples in the British Isles, France, Switzerland, Belgium, Netherlands, Scandinavia, and the offshoots of such peoples in North America, Australia, and New Zealand. Different Criteria help us determine in general, collective terms who descended from the Lost Ten Tribes and who does not.

Who Qualifies to be from the Ten Tribes?

========

Hadassah

Thank you again, Yair! Ironically, I had just read Isaiah 11 again yesterday (reading through the Bible again!). Shabbat shalom ??

Smitty

I'll say it again. Been following the good Rabbi's work since about 1999 or 2000. Back then we were all getting used to the internet so everything was basically just HTML based. Especially with the free "build your own website" sites. So there was alot of typing text into old school HTML frames. And Rabbi Davidy's site was no different. We all had to go through this process to put things online. So, initially, I had to read pages and pages of text in order to learn what Rabbi Davidy was teaching. And that's exactly what I did.

So Rabbi, if you read this comment then you'll know for a fact that I'm telling the truth about how long I've been following your work. Back then I may have had to do all the reading...but you had to do all of the typing (LOL). Good times, hu??

You're still awesome, Bro.

Smitty OUT ========== Truman Coates We will be one stick in His hand. ========== Anglo Saxons Are Israelites Isaac's Sons are ready to return soon. ???? ========== Tony Bishop What is the appropriate term to describe them as they are not practicing Jews, is Hebrew a better description ? =========== TubalCain Maybe WWIII soon... =========== David Stanley Actually there are 14 tribes. The two sons of Joseph adding to the original 12 sons of Jacob. And these two, Ephraim and Manasseh are the most prominent today being the USA and Great Britain.

Ephraim, the USA received the birthright blessing and the "double portion" of inheritance (Genesis chapter 48), just as prophesied.

(a) Re Conversion.

Ohr Haganuz

Do the 10 tribes need to convert to Judaism or keep the commandments without converting?

Brit-Am Reply:

This is question whose answer varies from one individual to another.

In general they do not need to convert but remain where they are.

If however they genuinely want to keep as many of the Commandments as possible then perhaps conversion should be considered.

This however should be done via an Orthodox Rabbi and not through Brit-Am.

==========

(a) Queries being deleted?

Adam Joseph I have legitimate questions so why do they keep getting deleted?

Brit-Am Reply:

Sorry to appear abrupt on occasion. We try to avoid issues not directly connected to the Lost Ten Tribes even if the other matters appear related or are more important in themselves.

Jacob (aka Israel) Kept the Law of Tithing: Jacob linked his tithing to a Return to the House of his Father. We can do the same.

Genesis (NIV) 28:

18 Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it.

19 He called that place Bethel, though the city used to be called Luz.

20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear

21 so that I return safely to my fathers household, then the LORD will be my God

22 and this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be Gods House, and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth.

Malachi 3: 10 Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, That there may be food in My house, And try Me now in this, Says the LORD of hosts, 'If I will not open for you the windows of heaven And pour out for you such blessing That there will not be room enough to receive it.

Proverbs 3:9 Honor the LORD with your wealth and with the first of all your produce,10 so your barns will be filled with abundance, and your vats will burst open with new wine. http://hebrewnations.com/publications/books/ http://www.britam.org/books.html http://www.britam.org/contribute-Brit-Am.html http://hebrewnations.com/contributions/offerings.html
