3. Coming Up. A Serious Brit-Am Study on the USA.

re
Ten Tribes in America.

Mark Williams

It's always a bit confusing when you say the Lost Ten Tribes are in America since it seems to contradict claims of them being in other regions such as Scandinavia, The British Isles, France, Switzerland and the Low Countries and the British Antipodes.

Brit-Am Reply:

Just because I say it does not mean it has to be that way. Descendants of the TTs are in the places that we mention in the list we often quote.

Just like we find in prophecy that among the TTs a certain emphasis is placed on Joseph/Ephraim so too in our time do we find a stress laid on the importance of Manasseh/USA in America.

In addition to the above, it should be noted that we intend to produce a series of articles analyzing the USA by areas.

A preliminary study indicates that each one of the 13 Original Colonies represented a Tribe.

Each one of the remaining states links back to one or other of the 13 original states.

It may also be that the USA is roughly dividable into 3 sections: 1. Manasseh, 2. Ephraim, 3. Judah.

We will also continue our study of the Israelite Nations of Europe and their kings probably with the Netherlands next in line.

4. Pesach (Passover) Coming Up (6 April, 2022; 5 Nissan, 5782).

In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month between the two evenings is the LORD's Passover. And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD; seven days ye shall eat unleavened bread. In the first day ye shall have a holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work. And ye shall bring an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days; in the seventh day is a holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work # (Leviticus 23: 5).

In a bit more than a week begins the Feast of Passover (Pesach). A week from Friday sunset (15 April 2022) The holiday begins and continues for 7 days (8 days outside of Israel) until sunset on Friday 22 April Friday leading into the Sabbath on Saturday.

The first and last days are full Feast days on which work is forbidden. The intervening days allow work that cannot be avoided.

Brit-Am will stop working the day beforehand so that for at least 9 days you will probably not hear from us (which for some may be a relief!).

Brit-Am will not be sending out any posts during that time. We will probably not be answering messages unless there is some degree of urgency in doing so.

Next week (i.e. the week before Passover) we will probably send out an extra 2 .pdf issues of past issues of our magazine, "Tribesman."

This will give extra reading material for those who wish during the week when Brit-Am will not be active.

Attempted Reconciliation

The first king of the Ten Tribes in their separate Kingdom of Israel was Jeroboam ben Nabat. He set up golden calves in Beth-el and Dan and prevented the Ten Tribe peoples from going up to Jerusalem to celebrate the feasts.

After Jeroboam there came 19 more kings who ruled over the northern Kingdom. The last one, King Hosea, removed the barriers and allowed the Israelites to attend the feasts at Jerusalem.

After King Hosea had begun his reign in the northern Kingdom of the Ten Tribes, Hezekiah became monarch in the south, in the Kingdom of Judah.

King Hezekiah then reigned in Jerusalem. He attempted a reconciliation with the Ten Tribes. King Hezekiah sent messengers throughout the Land of Northern Israel.

Most of the Israelites mocked these emissaries and refused to go up to Jerusalem. Nevertheless, there was also a large minority who did answer positively.

2-Chronicles (NKJV) 30:

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. 7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see. 8 Now be ye not stiffnecked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves unto the Lord, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the Lord your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the runners passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun; but they laughed at them and mocked them. 11 Nevertheless some from Asher, Manasseh, and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem. 12 Also the hand of God was on Judah to give them singleness of heart to obey the command of the king and the leaders, at the word of the LORD....

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem, for since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem. 27 Then the Priests, the Levites, arose and blessed the people, and their voice was heard; and their prayer came up to His holy dwelling place, to heaven.

See:

Day of Reconciliation

<https://hebrewnations.com/articles/18/reconciliationday.html>

At the time that this took place this the majority of Israelites in the north had already been exiled by Assyria.

After the Passover that was celebrated with Hezekiah and a portion of the Tribes the pilgrims returned to their homes in Israel.

They would then all have been taken away by the Assyrians. King Hosea was the last king of northern Israel.

It may be that in merit of the degree of participation that did take place it will be easier for their descendants to return when the time comes?

Brit-Am and Reconciliation

Brit-Am does not really work for Reconciliation in the Religious sense. At present our task is to spread knowledge and awareness of Israelite origins.

This may not sound like much but it may be what Divine Providence requires at present.

Brit-Am is in need of extra funds.

We believe that whosoever helps Brit-Am will be rewarded from Heaven.

This too is the work of the Almighty and serves a sacred purpose.

This too is needed.

Jacob (aka Israel) Kept the Law of Tithing: Jacob linked his tithing to a Return to the House of his Father. We can do the same.

Genesis (NIV) 28:

18 Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it.

19 He called that place Bethel, though the city used to be called Luz.

20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear

21 so that I return safely to my fathers household, then the LORD will be my God

22 and this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be Gods House, and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth.

Malachi 3:

10 Bring all the tithes into the storehouse,
That there may be food in My house,

And try Me now in this,
Says the LORD of hosts,

'If I will not open for you the windows of heaven
And pour out for you such blessing
That there will not be room enough to receive it.

Proverbs 3:

9 Honor the LORD with your wealth
and with the first of all your produce,

10 so your barns will be filled with abundance,
and your vats will burst open with new wine.
