- 1. New Article from Don Davis.

Hi Yair,

I have written an intel-related article about Ukraine and Israel if you're interested.

Hope you had a blessed Passover.

Best.

2. The Welsh are Nick-Named after David!

"Taffy" is a name for a Welshman. "Taffy" is a Welsh nickname for someone from Wales and the name "Taffy" is often applied to Welshmen. It derives from the Welsh name "Dafydd" which means DAVID!

3. Sub-titles for Video Clips.

Hebrews in Wales-2

Both clips NOW have ALL the text in sub-titles. Google has a program which provides us with sub-titles based on the sound. First we mark it for sub-titles then Google processes it and sends the ready-made outline and tentative wording. This may take anywhere from two hours to a day to come through. It gives us an outline to work on. We then need to go through the tentative sub-title text and correct those words and sentences that have been misread.

This too can take quite a while. Nevertheless it saves an enormous amount of time when compared to any other method available.

4. Saint David in Wales.

The Patron Saint of Wales is David who was a Bishop in the 500s CE.

His very name may account for part of his attraction.

David is said to have denounced Pelagianism which may have originated simultaneously in Wales and North Africa. It was named after a Welshman named Pelagius (c. 355 c. 420 CE) which name in Welsh would have been Morgan.

One objection to Pelagianism was that it allegedly considered both the "Old Testament" and the so-called "New Testament" to be equally valid Pathways in the Service of God.

As a practising Jew I cannot accept this.

As practising Christians many of our followers will also not feel easy with it.

Nevertheless it is a point of view worth appreciating.

#4. Homosexuality is Forbidden!

Dear Mr. Davidiy, I really need to thank you for today's posting on Facebook. I have previously heard that Judaism is liberal on the subject you elaborate on, so I was very happy, no, exceedingly glad and grateful to read your mind on this, based on the teaching of the Torah.

Your thoughts about how the families and children are affected when society is filled with promiscuity and what you name abominations, really resonated with me. I am so tired of this present age and the arguments of this world as to how we should accept, and even applaud what is not good for us, ever stretching the borders that the Almighty has set up for how this life should be lived.

I know that the Beloved country is under great pressure from the world around, but also from within, with the same struggles that all societies are experiencing in the field of marriage and relations. In a way, I am glad that the end times are coming. I so wish that God Almighty should get what is due Him, and not have to look upon the sins committed by us, the humans living now.

One final thing; I am currently reading a book about the liquidation of Jewish finances in Norway during WWII, and how people built fortunes on what they stole from the families who were deported. This is sad reading, indeed. Norway have very, very little to be proud of in these matters. As everywhere, it all comes down to a society where evil was accepted, and only a few individuals did what was right thereby putting themselves and their families in danger. I am ashamed to read this, and sad to have grown up in a system that have accepted such vile deeds.

I wish you all the best.
Kind regards,

Mrs. H.

6. How Many Tribes were there?

Jim King

Wasn't the tribe of Levi represented in both the northern kingdom and the southern kingdom? So wouldn't Israel today be populated with Judah, Benjamin, and Levi? And the lost tribes would be the remaining nine dispersed around the western nations?

Brit-Am Reply:
Yes and No.

First of all there were 13 Tribes not 12. The number 12 however is adhered perhaps for mystical reasons. This is done by counting 2 of the Tribes (Ephraim and Manasseh) as the one Tribe of Joseph, or by not counting the Levites.

Initially the Tribe of Levi was scattered throughout all of the other Tribes, as you say.

When the Tribes divided Jeroboam King of the Northern Kingdom instituted official idolatry and demoted the Levites. Consequently they moved to the south.

2-Chronicles (NASB) 11:

5 Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built cities for defense in Judah. ...12 He put shields and spears in every city and strengthened them greatly. So he held Judah and Benjamin.

13 Moreover, the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel also stood with him from all their districts.

14 For the Levites left their pasture lands and their property and went to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jeroboam and his sons had excluded them from serving as priests to the LORD.

15 He set up priests of his own for the high places, for the satyrs and the calves which he had made.

The 10 Tribes of the northern Kingdom were:

Dan

Asher

Naphtali

Reuben

Gad

Manasseh

Ephraim

Issachar

Zebulun

Gad

Simeon

Levi is not there.

Simeon at the beginning neighbored Judah or was interspersed with Judah. Later David separated it and moved it further south and from there some of it went eastwards (1-Chronicles 4: 42) . At all events Simeon towards the end was ruled from the north, shared the northern Culture, and was exiled together with the rest as the north (2-Chronicles 34: 6 "be-charvotaihem" i.e. in their ruins) .

The 10 Tribes also included contingents from Judah and Levi just as Judah was to contain refugees from the 10 tribes. Nevertheless the two bodies are referred to after the original Tribes at the time of division.

Jim King Commented:

Yair Davidiy - Excellent response. I always knew there was something incredible in the words of Jacob when he blessed Ephraim and Manasseh. Whenever I would discuss it with other Christians, they would always minimize the implications of what his prophesy implied. So years ago I started keeping it to myself. When I discovered your channel, I was very reassured that I wasn't over interpreting the passage. I enjoy your channel greatly. Thank you!

You are more needed at this time. What a world we live in! Keep on rebuilding the people! Then, continue on rebuilding the land. Then rebuild the temple. God will determine the order.

Jacob (aka Israel) Kept the Law of Tithing: Jacob linked his tithing to a Return to the House of his Father. We can do the same.

Genesis (NIV) 28:

18 Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it.

19 He called that place Bethel, though the city used to be called Luz.

20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear

21 so that I return safely to my fathers household, then the LORD will be my God

22 and this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be Gods House, and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth.

Malachi 3:

10 Bring all the tithes into the storehouse,
That there may be food in My house,
And try Me now in this,
Says the LORD of hosts,
'If I will not open for you the windows of heaven
And pour out for you such blessing
That there will not be room enough to receive it.

Proverbs 3:

9 Honor the LORD with your wealth
and with the first of all your produce,
10 so your barns will be filled with abundance,
and your vats will burst open with new wine.
